

On behalf of ASHRM’s Board of Directors, I am honored to report to you our achievements as we close out our 49th year of excellence in operations. Over nearly five decades, we have led efforts to keep our members educated and ready to excel, embrace the changes in society and our profession to become the catalysts and contributors for transformative change in our workplaces. As we reflect on our journey thus far, we can’t help but marvel at the incredible 2023 achievements.

900	Raised for the SHRM Foundation.
650	Attendees to our monthly educational programs and events.
500	ASHRM and MatSu members!
400	ASD High School students helped by ASHRM Volunteers with mock interviews as part of our workforce readiness initiatives.
165	Advocacy Team Members helping shape the future of HR policies.
90	Volunteers for the ASD Career Ready Program!
49	ASHRM anniversary!
24	Participants in the SHRM Certification Preparation Classes.
13	SHRM/HRCI Pre-approved Programs: In addition to our standard programming, we ended the year with a 3 hour program on ChatGPT.
11	Diversity moments shared at our monthly program.
9	In-person networking opportunities with our in-person monthly programs, ASHRM/Wayland Baptist University Fall Series and Networking and Silent Auction event.
4	Additional SHRM/HRCI pre-approved and complimentary evening programs in partnership with Wayland Baptist University student chapter.
4	Awards – Chapter: SHRM Foundation Champion, SHRM EXCEL Award, SHRM Platinum Award and individual NHRMA’s Distinguished Member Award to Patty Hickok.

In addition, the treasurer duties were streamlined and automated, our meetings were professionally planned and managed by our amazing Secretary, badges and welcome process to events beautifully managed by Hospitality, constant social media presence by Public Relations and a very active Wayland Baptist University Student Chapter that received once again the Superior Merit Award from SHRM!

As we stand on the cusp of our 50th anniversary, let us remember that our shared commitment to excellence, innovation, and collaboration has been the driving force behind our association's success. Let's celebrate the journey that has brought us this far and set our sights on an even brighter future. Together, we thrive!
